Presidents Message

What a great year we have had! The weather was brutal, but we didn't miss a meeting! We had very informative, and fun, meetings and many successful project days on our 'off weeks'; worked on a second mystery quilt that will be 'revealed at our final meeting of the year'; The group's generosity as evidenced by the many, many beautiful comfort quilts, is just amazing!; The flower and Holiday fabric raffles were a hit, with numerous 'winners' going home with fabric; we completed another special year of Secret Sister with the sisters being revealed at our 11 June Luncheon meeting; Our members delighted and informed us with their talents and demonstrations; Our Ways & Means were very successful, as was our Finished Item Auction – we had fewer members present, and fewer items, yet we nearly matched last year in $$ - Great job!!!; Visitors from the new quilt shop in Fairhaven brought some fun projects & ideas to share with us and worked with us to make wool pincushions after the meeting – What fun!

Some lucky individual, perhaps a guild member, will win our Raffle Quilt in July, and our next 2 raffle quilts are in process! If you have never been part of the County Fair quilt exhibit, as an exhibitor and/or a guardian of the quilts, give it a try – you're sure to meet some interesting people, and the talent on display is always amazing!

Over the course of the summer the room that we use at the fairgrounds will be busy. We have use of the parking lot, though for the two bus trips (June 18 shop hop & August 13 Mancuso show in NH). Parking will be at the far side of the lot, unless we're told otherwise – watch for directions as you arrive. I've already been warned that the Fairgrounds is again hosting the Bourne Scallop Festival and that may affect our fall meeting schedule. We are working on blocking out our meeting dates for the fall – more on that as info is available. For now, block off the 2nd and 4th Thursdays on your calendar – we'll figure it out and keep you posted.

Thanks to Penny & Jeanie for making arrangements with the Mashpee Library for us to meet there for weekly project days on Thursdays from 9.30 – 1 (except July 16). The meeting room is in the back of the library, the double doors on the right (closest to the church). Parking is fabulous as the library is closed that morning!

Our officers for the upcoming year are listed in this newsletter. Committees and committee chairs, for the most part have agreed to continue another year. If you would like to serve as a committee chair or on a committee, please let it be known. Our guild is for and about all of us.

Thank you for making my first year as Guild President a fun one and for your continued support as I begin my second year as your President! Have a safe & wonderful summer! Remember that there will be project days throughout the summer, Bayberry's Quilt Show, our bus trip to NH in August and the quilt exhibit at the fair to help us to keep our creative juices flowing... Hope to see you at one of the events, but, if not, I look forward to seeing you in September!

RECIPE CORNER

Rhubarb Bread

Bread Batter
1 1/2 cups sugar
2/3 cup oil (veg. or canola)
1 egg
2 1/2 cups flour
1/2 cup nuts (optional)
1 tsp. baking soda
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup buttermilk
3 to 3 1/2 cups rhubarb (cut up fine)

Topping:
1/4 cup sugar
1 tbsp. butter

Mix all batter ingredients and put in 2 small greased and floured loaf pans. Combine topping ingredients and sprinkle on top of batter before baking.

Bake at 350 degrees for 60 minutes. Let cool before taking out of pan. Yummy!!

May Reed

Sticky Chicken

2 to 4 Boneless, Skinless Chicken Breasts
1 pkt. onion soup mix
6-8 oz. apricot preserve
6-8 oz. Catalina dressing

Mix onion soup mix, apricot preserve and Catalina salad dressing in a bowl. Cut chicken breasts into 3-4 inch cubes

Marinate chicken in mix for at least one hour (can marinate overnight). Place in 9" x 13" pan and bake for 30 minutes to 1 hour at 350 degrees. (Check for doneness after 30 minutes—may need to cook longer)

POEMS FOR THE QUILTER
SOS

Where can I store more fabric?
My sewing room shelves are crammed!
There's no more space beneath my bed
And the guest room closet is jammed.

I have a friend with an attic
Who would let me store some there,
But such separation from my treasures
Would be more than I could bear.
Meanwhile there are three bags full
From the big sale I went to today
And I can't think where to put them --
Or what my dear husband will say!

COPING WITH UFOS

Many are the quilts I have begun,
Far fewer those I've finished.
The UFO collection just keeps growing --
It needs to be diminished!
I could send them to be quilted by machine
But that would take money I lack.
I could let someone else quilt them for me,
But would I really get them back?
Not starting quilts would, of course,
Be a sure UFO preventive,
But not having the will power that requires,
I must rely on some deadline incentive.

"I guess Mazel is still sore about last year's judging..."

A Quilter meets St. Peter

A quilter died and went up to the Pearly gates. There she met St. Peter and was faced with a choice. St. Peter said that she had lived her life and now she could either go to Heaven, or Hell – it was her choice. She was pretty sure where she wanted to go, but she was also a very curious quilter.

She asked Saint Peter if she could just take a look at what might be awaiting her in Hell.

They entered a huge room, with tables and chairs. There were quite a few pleasant looking quilters sitting everywhere. But it was what was in the middle of each table that caught her attention: a wonderful huge pile of fabric. She thought she'd died and gone to Heaven!!!

She made up her mind on the spot, and turned to Saint Peter: "I know that Heaven is probably very nice, but I've decided that I want to stay here, thank you."

As the door closed quietly behind him for all eternity, everyone at the tables turned to her with a smile on their faces and said, with one voice:

"Did you bring the needles?"

Quilting Tip

To align the quilt top, batting, and backing for basting, fold each in half and mark the center fold with pins. As you layer your quilt, match the center pins to align the layers.

Year in Review

I hope everyone enjoyed the guest speakers of the 2014-2015 Holly Berry quilters' year. We had Adele Scott in October with "Tips, Tricks and Products". She tested out new products with fellow quilters to see what works, and advised us of products that might not do what they promise. In March we had the Kindred Quilters with the Urban Trilogy Bag, which almost everyone who took the class finished the bag. In May we had the ladies from the Quilted Star in Fairhaven, MA come to the guild to give a trunk show and do a small class on a felt pincushion.

Our programs were rounded out by talented guild members. Denise helped show different ways to make labels in September. Later in the year she did a tote bag demo, and a tablet demo. Marge did a Snow Man Mug Rug Demo. Jeanie and Marge did demos on Jenny Doan from the Missouri Star Co. patterns in January and February and Penny did a Sweatshirt Demo. We also had our "money raising" Ways and Means and Finished Project Auctions that bring out the talents of the guild members.

While our ongoing effort in collecting comfort quilts for charity was very successful this year under the direction of Ursula and Cheryl, it would be nice to plan additional projects for charity for our upcoming year, as we have done in the past.

It was a fun and creative year. If any member has suggestions to make our meetings better we would love to hear their ideas!

Comfort Quilts 2014-15

The making of comfort quilts has been an integral part of the Holly Berry Quilters' Guild throughout the years. The goals of our organization include working together and giving back to the community. We have accomplished this through our comfort quilts that bring joy, happiness and comfort to those who sew the pieces together and those who receive the finished project as beautiful quilt.

We thank all of our members who have supported this valuable program by donating a comfort quilt made with love. A special thank-you also goes to our Comfort Quilt Committee co-chairs, Ursula and Cheryl, for such a wonderful job organizing our comfort quilts for the 2014-2015 year and the encouragement they gave us with their own generous contributions.

A total of 57 quilts were created by guild members. These quilts have gone to the Charlton House of Falmouth (15), Veterans (6), Baby Center in Hyannis (13), Independence House in Hyannis (12) and Sandwich Hospice (11).

We are very proud of our guild members and their contribution to our community.
